

INTERESTING PARAGRAPHS

Local and General Interest, Gathered at Home or Clipped from our Exchanges. Editor B. W. Peck is attending in Erie this week. Mrs. M. M. Logan, of Red Oak, is visiting her brother, M. Shaaffner, Esq. We were obliged to shorten our late correspondence because of lack of space. Miss Ella Kendall, trained nurse, came home from Philadelphia last Friday for a vacation. Mrs. Lou Jackson returned Saturday, after having spent several weeks in Franklin county. Miss Mary Hoke, of Chambersburg, came home Saturday to attend her sister's wedding on Sunday. James Truax found locust blossoms on the mountain yesterday. Heather early or late—for these flowers. Miss Goldie Mason after having spent several weeks in the West end of the county, returned Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sowers, who spent the summer in Alabama, returned to their home in place Monday. Our old friend, J. B. Mellott, of McKing Creek township merchant, was a pleasant caller at the News office yesterday. Miss Mary Pittman entertained a few ladies last Friday evening at tea in honor of the bride, Miss Gertrude Hoke. H. O. Wible, of Tod township, received an appointment to teach at the Huntingdon Reformatory, and left last week to take up the work. T. J. Comerer has the foundation finished for a new house on Walnut street. Yes, McConnellsburg is growing faster than some railroad towns. Mr. Frank M. Doyle, foreman of this office, has been confined in his bedroom since last Friday because of a very severe attack of chills and fever—regularly fashionable ague. Andrew Fisher, who is in the employ of the Pullman Company as conductor, was home for a few days' hunt and to see friends. Pat's Run is between New York and St. Louis. Mrs. Hannah Cromer, of Pittsburgh, who has been spending some time with friends in the northern part of the County, spent two days in town, this week, calling on friends. Harlan, youngest son of Prof. A. Surface, State Zoologist, was shot in the leg recently, when a rolling pumpkin upset his wagon, discharging the load of shot. He is in a serious condition. Mrs. George A. Harris, who spent several weeks in the German Hospital, Philadelphia, got towards home as far as Harrisburg last week and is spending some time in that place with her mother, Mrs. J. Linn. Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Young, of Harrisburg, and Mr. C. H. Kendall and his daughter, Miss Lillie, of Albion, spent yesterday with the Editor and his wife. Mr. B. Young is a brother of Mrs. B. Peck. Mrs. Cloyd Everhart, near Sandeville, was thrown from a horse Tuesday and severely injured about the body. She also received cuts about the head and face. Dr. Mosser was called to render necessary medical treatment. Earl, son of George Everhart, of Tod township, had the flesh torn from the ball of one of his thumbs, Wednesday, by getting caught in a circular saw at Daniel E. Fore place. Dr. Mosser dressed the ugly wound. The members of the Pleasant Church Brethren church will start their choir-training class in their church Monday evening, October 10, to be conducted by Rev. W. W. Young. When Rev. John Mellott was in the News office, Tuesday, he said that his church had the need of training the young people to sing.

L. W. FUNK

DEALER IN -- High Grade Plain Pianos, Player Pianos, Organs, Victrolas, Records, and Professional Tuner, McConnellsburg,

Nothing adds more to the refinements of home than good music. To have good music you must have a good instrument. There are good bad and indifferent instruments, and to the unskilled eye they look much alike. The unprincipled dealer is likely to make you pay a first-class price for a fourth-class instrument. I have lived in this county since my birth, I am a taxpayer and in a position to make good any business transactions. Buy your piano, organ, or victrola from me and if it is not all right you can come back at me.

There are families in every part of this county that have purchased instruments from me. Ask them about me.

Perhaps you want to trade your organ for a Piano, or Player Piano; or your Plain Piano, for a Player. See me. Let's talk it over.
